

Building a dynamic & inclusive movement

HARRISON HOT SPRINGS, BC
SEPTEMBER 25-29

OLYMPIA, WA
JANUARY 8-12

PORTLAND, OR
MAY 13-17

The Cascade Region Labor Leadership Initiative provides a high-level curriculum, designed for leaders from across Oregon, Washington and British Columbia to explore the strategic challenges they face today. CRLLI features three weeklong retreats facilitated by a team of experienced and dynamic instructors. We foster regional collaboration and cross-border/cross-sector reflection and learning. Peer coaching during and between the retreats is actively encouraged. The curriculum is flexibly designed to adjust to the particular needs and actual challenges CRLLI participants are dealing with in their own organizations and within their states/provinces.

This is a moment of unparalleled opportunity to grow and change our movement. We are in the midst of a generational change in leadership. After the organizing challenges of the past three years, it's time to invest in training to fortify our locals and unions, and to build lasting networks in our communities.

“CRLLI helped me become more thoughtful and strategic in my leadership role. Learning from and with other leaders has deepened my commitment to the work and provided me a support network of other smart, dedicated labor and community leaders.”

April Sims
Washington State Labor Council

“CRLLI fosters a deep sense of connection to the work of improving life for working people and to the people doing that work. It is a unique opportunity to step out of the hectic political schedule and to focus on the values we share that drive us to make change.”

Denise Moffatt
BC Federation of Labour

Delegate fee $13,000 CDN / $10,000 USD.

Fees cover the three retreats, accommodations, activities, and food.
